

Contents

Chapter I – Introduction I-1

1. General remark I-1
2. Work of an examiner I-1
3. Purpose of international preliminary examination I-1

Chapter II – Formal requirements to be met before the start of the international preliminary examination II-1

1. Filing of the demand II-1
2. The EPO as competent IPEA II-1
3. Identification of the international application in the demand II-1
4. Applicant's entitlement to file a demand II-2
5. Representation II-2
6. Election of states II-2
7. Signature II-2
8. Basis for international preliminary examination II-2
9. IPEA file II-3
10. Correction of deficiencies II-3
11. Payment and refund of fees II-3
12. Transmission of demand to the International Bureau II-3

Chapter III – Documents forming the basis of the international preliminary examination III-1

1. Substitute sheets and rectified sheets III-1
2. Sheets filed under Rule 20.6 containing missing parts or elements III-1
3. Amended sheets III-1